24th Annual Dove Awards

Steven Curtis Chapman Wins Unprecedented Six Doves

THE GOSPEL MUSIC Association's 24th annual Dove Awards, held April 1 in Nashville's sold-out Tennessee Performing Arts Center, belonged to Artist of the Year Steven Curtis Chapman. With a total of seven nominations, Chapman walked away with six wins, not including the Steven Curtis Chapman Choral Collection whose creators Tom Hartley and Randy Smith also won Doves Awards for Choral Collection Album of the Year.

Chapman's album, The Great Adventure, was named Contemporary Album of the Year with the title song receiving Contemporary Song and Song of the Year awards while "The Great Adventure" video received the Short Form Video Award. Chapman also logged his fifth consecutive win as Songwriter of the Year. "I'm feeling all of the emotions from excitement to nervousness. I'm encouraged and humbled, and I'm feeling real challenged, too—the Great Adventure continues [laughs]."

Chapman now holds 18 total Dove Awards including previous wins in the Male Vocalist, Artist and Southern Gospel Song categories.

Someone else with an abundance of Dove Awards was the presenter of the Female Vocalist of the Year award, Sandi Patti, who wore a red ribbon during the telecast in honor of AIDS patients. "I've realized that there are a lot of people who need love and compassion in this world. It's a very painful disease no matter why you got it. I know what it feels like to be in pain, so it's just sort of my personal message."

Patti, an 11-time Female Vocalist of the Year, presented this year's award in that category to Twila Paris, who was unable to attend the show. Contacted later, Paris

Gospel Music '93 Enjoys Record Attendance, Spotlights Vision

SPORTING A RECORD ATTENDANCE of over 1300, the Gospel Music Association (GMA) engaged in a week-long series of activities including seminars, concerts and receptions at the Stouffer Nashville Hotel and Convention Center March 28-April 1. Gospel Music '93 got off the ground unofficially for many at Word's Saturday afternoon fishing party or at the open-house preview party for Steve Camp's new release. Evening activities included a rare Nashville show by Sparrow/Liberty artist Carman and the live taping of a new release in Integrity's Hosanna! series.

Registration at noon on Sunday was followed by the first of the five distributor luncheons held during the week to give

Out and About

- Charles Dorris and Associates, Inc., which books artists such as Wayne Watson, Rachel Rachel, Wes King, Cindy Morgan, First Call, Steve Camp, Bruce Carroll and White Heart, has announced it will be joining the fold of the William Morris Agency. Charles Dorris will co-head the Christian music division with Steve Brallier while former CDA agents Monty Stallins, David Breen and administrative assistant Sue Ann Cordell will join WMA and continue in their areas of specialization.
- According to a recent press announcement, Word, Inc. and Mike Warnke have jointly agreed to terminate their 18 year relationship following accusations made against the comedian by Cornerstone magazine last year. Warnke has since submitted himself and his ministry to a council of elders as well as made a public statement acknowledging certain mistakes (as reported in the 3-15-93 Update). Word will grant full return privileges through May 30, 1993 to retailers, and all future Warnke product may be ordered through The Mercy Company, Inc.
- Sparrow is teaming up with Proper Productions for an all new Young Messiah recording to be co-executive produced by Norman Miller and Sandi Patti, and produced by Greg Nelson. The recording will feature performances from Steven Curtis Chapman, BeBe & CeCe Winans, Sandi Patti, Steve Green, Michael English, Twila Paris, Susan Ashton, 4HIM, Wayne Watson, First Call, Larnelle Harris, Phil Keaggy, Christine Dente, Cindy Morgan and the Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir. A new Norman Miller-produced tour based on the upcoming recording is scheduled to travel to 12 cities this year with Chapman, Patti, Green and English among the performers to appear.
- Youth for Christ's Youth Evangelism SuperConference announced it's going bi-coastal next year with the launching of LA '94 (Aug. 17-21, 1994) as the accompanying project to DC '94 (July 27-31, 1994) with artists like Steven Curtis Chapman, DC Talk, Geoff Moore, Petra, Newsboys, Al Denson, Rachel Rachel, and Pray for Rain as well as speakers such as Josh McDowell, Tony Campolo and Ken Davis scheduled to appear at both events.

Gospel Music '93

sponsored Songwriter's Showcase featuring writers such as Geoff Moore, Wayne Kirkpatrick, Don Koch, Mark Harris, Bruce Carroll and host Ricky Skaggs.

Throughout the week, seminars on various topics were divided into one of five tracks: Career; Industry Leadership; National Christian Radio Seminar (NCRS); National Christian Promoter's Roundtable (NCPR); and Christian Music & Video Retailers (CMVR).

Low attendance plagued the nightly New Artist Showcases due to a variety of other concerts occurring simultaneously including Rock Night (Pray for Rain, Prayer Chain, Bride, etc.), Rock the WAL (77s, The Stand, The Brave, Adam Again, etc.), SLAA Showcase (Bryan Duncan, Randy Stonehill, etc.), and the Reunion Showcase (Wes King, Ashley Cleveland, Gary Chapman).

The nightly GMA-sponsored evening concerts, however, fared better attendance since they were open to the public for a $10.50 ticket price per night featuring artists such as Al Denson, Maia Amada, Margaret Becker, Newsboys, Out of the Grey, Wes King, Angelo & Veronica, and Paul Overstreet.

The week concluded with the two-hour national telecast on the Family Channel of the 24th annual Dove Awards. The GMA's 30th anniversary at Gospel Music Week will occur April 24-28, 1994.

Other highlights of the week:

- Awards presented during "Monday Morning Live" included the Impact Award to The Young Messiah Tour—Word, Norman Miller; the International Award to Iona; the Grady Nutt Humor Award to Mark Lowry; Contribution by a Secular Artist to Arsenio Hall; and the Lifetime Achievement Award to Word, Inc.

- Hall of Fame Inductees included the late Asa Brook Everett, James Rowe, Charles D. Tillman, Charles A. Tinley, and James Marsh. The living inductee in the performance category was Rusty Goodman while Jarrell McCracken was inducted in the non-performance category, and W.F. "Jim" Myers was surprised by his induction in the Hall of Fame this year.

- GMA President John Styll opened the "business" portion of the week at "Monday Morning Live" with an explanation of the restructuring to take place within the GMA over the next year whereby two new organizations will be created. The Gospel Music Association will become the industry's trade organization whose vision is to increase the influence of contemporary Christian music. Meanwhile, the establishment of the Gospel Music Foundation will serve to provide benevolent education and resources for artistic development.

- The report from The National Christian Music Research Project (NCMRP) encouraged vision as it has been exploring the impact of Christian music presently and the needs for future growth. The studies so far revealed several facts including that two-thirds of the people polled had only "somewhat or limited" exposure to Christian music, and 39 percent of Christian music buyers started buying in the last five years. The committee concluded that the biggest opportunity the industry has is to re-engage the church on the acceptance of Christian music while the most critical challenge remains gaining the appeal of a wider audience for Christian radio.

Some goals for the rest of this year that were advocated by the GMA Strategic Planning Task Force and the CMVR Industry/Issues Task Force as well as the NCMRP included better communication and relations with churches; engaging youth ministers in support of Christian concerts; a Christmas '93 gift buying campaign; recognition of the importance of Christian magazines; and national promotions.

- The establishment of the Gospel Music Resource Library at 1205 Division St. in Nashville was aided by a $5000 donation from Arrival Records.

- The GMA Board of Directors elected BMG Music's Elwyn Raymer as Chairman, re-elected CCM Communications' John Styll to his third consecutive term as President, elected Thomas Nelson's Don Boyer as Secretary, and Curb Records' Mark Slough as Treasurer. Also elected by the board were Vice Presidents Stephen Speer, Ed Smith, Neal Joseph and Jim Chaffee. Elected to serve as Directors were Mike Gwartney, Todd Hafer, Bill Hearn, Terry Hemmings, Roland Lundy, Jerry Park, Elwyn Raymer and Glenn Williams. ■

THE CCM UPDATE ALBUM REVIEWS

Top Ten

Margaret Becker Soul Sparrow

On her previous albums, Becker displayed her soul more subtly, allowing the grit in her voice to surface through pop and rock arrangements. Soul is still pop, but it's the "R&B-lite" variety, something for which Becker's voice often doesn't seem especially well-suited. It's not that the material is sub-par or the production offers less than the excellence you'd expect from Charlie Peacock; something just doesn't ring totally genuine. Still, Becker works an Annie Lennox-type groove on "Soul Tattoo" and "I Wouldn't Know" while infusing ballads like "Say the Name" and "This Flame" with her inimitable passion; "Keeping Watch," a duet with Bob Carlisle is also particularly tasty.

On The Chart

Wes King The Robe Reunion

King has consistently turned out enthusiastic acoustic pop; album three is certainly no exception. Besides adroitly performing all the acoustic guitar parts on The Robe, King wrote or co-wrote the entire project. He and his collaborators offer a mix of the sentimental, the spiritual, the challenging and the humorous—all the stuff that makes for real-life storytelling. Cameos from musicians like Dann Huff, Susan Ashton and Ashley Cleveland add spice to King's engaging and thoughtful presentation.

the Prayer Chain Shawl Reunion

This intelligent, intense California band has measured each step of its burgeoning career very carefully; first a self-released cassette, then a full-length indie CD, a remixed EP (Whirlpool) of the best tracks from those projects and now, finally, a new collection of 12 very impressive songs. The group is reminiscent of The Doors with its brooding, poetic lyrics and emotional delivery; musically, it's as current and fresh as anything on today's modern rock charts. Currently my front-runner for modern rock album of the year.

Vince Wilcox Reconciled Benson

Wilcox is a marketing executive turned artist/songwriter; his latest kudo (which combined both roles) was as executive producer and writer of several tracks on the Dove Award winning Generation 2 project for Benson. But after years of learning the business from the warehouse up, Wilcox is finally making his solo debut—and it's a well-earned shot. Bolstered by respected co-writers such as Phil Madeira, Don Koch and Rob Frazier, Wilcox moves into the "new country" territory occupied by folks such as Bruce Carroll and Paul Overstreet. But there's always room for another artist of Vince's caliber. A particularly auspicious beginning.

Also Received

Paul Aldrich Meet Paul Aldrich

Broken

Aldrich's background is working with Young Life; this has given the comic insight into the lives of the mostly teens and early twenties audiences for whom he performs his humorous monologues and clever songs. His funniest bits include observations on church camp, "The Yuppie Psalm" and famous "Dysfunctionals of the Bible."

Children of the Consuming Fire Come Home Phlubber (The Prodigal Son Epic) New Breed

The sophomore effort from the Children has one of the coolest album titles (not to mention cover and disc artwork) in recent memory. The group's music has progressed from the Clash-styled punk which informed its debut; present now are more sophisticated modern rock textures, as well as brittle mid-period U2 overtones and hints of the Seattle grunge sound.

*Eden Burning Vinegar and Brown Paper Storyville/R.E.X.

This brash young U.K. quintet mixes traditional Celtic influences (mandolin, bouzouki, violin and whistles) with the rock influences of latter-day Gaelic rockers such as Hothouse Flowers and The Waterboys. Tight musicianship and well-crafted lyrics are the hallmarks of this delightful band.

Prodigal Sons Texno Theology Metro One/Mixing Factory

Over the past year, these three young Texans have infiltrated the burgeoning "rave" culture, a sort of '90s counterpart of 1960's "happenings" or "love-ins;" the difference this time is that the music is technology-driven dance music, measured in volume (loud) and beats-per-minute (many). Along with the hypnotic bass thumps and computerized sound effects, the Sons mix in a gospel message in a strikingly original fashion. If your customers have enjoyed Jyradelix, Mortal, ZERO, etc., they won't want to miss perhaps the genre's best (and most authentic) disc yet.

Rivulets and Violets Rivulets and Violets Eden

Masaki Liu, (formerly of Bay Area favorites The Lonely Now) has put together this fascinating mix of ambient rock and soothing jazz textures, with a bit of his classical training brought to bear on the arrangements. It's all instrumental, except for occasional wordless backing vocals. Should appeal to fans of Phil Keaggy's instrumental work.

S.o.h.l. 4UR Tribe 2 Tha Bazix New Breed

This duo creates an old school vibe that suggests a love of James Brown and old Motown and Philly groove records. Rappers Skye and Sevin frequently temper their DJ Jazzy Jeff & Fresh Prince-inspired gags with more thoughtful fare. Cuts like "Lord Have Mercy" (the ultimate "having a bad day" song) and "Let the Love Flow" lean to the humorous side, while "Heaven Sent" and the chilling "Papa Dios" are on the serious tip.

Reissues

Paul Johnson & The Packards

Guitar Heaven/California Frontline Johnson, who penned the surf classic "Mr. Moto" in 1961 has been a Christian since 1970; he & The Packards are probably gospel music's only instrumental surf guitar group. This compilation offers his 1986 & '87 albums Guitar Heaven and California on a single CD. The set includes twangin' versions of praise & worship songs like "He Is Lord" and "Let Us Go Into the House of the Lord," as well as several terrific originals, including a remake of "Mr. Moto." Really groovy playing and generally a lot of fun!

*Terry Scott Taylor A Briefing For The Ascent Frontline

Out-of-print for nearly six years, this introspective concept record is one of the few in the Christian marketplace to deal with death in such a sensitive manner. Many listeners have commented that the songs, penned by Taylor in response to his grandmother's illness and death, have helped them cope with the passing of their own loved ones. Taylor's melding of C.S. Lewis' allegorical influence and The Beach Boys' Pet Sounds—era musical stylings makes it one of the most affecting albums he's ever released.

THE CCM UPDATE SINGLE REVIEWS

Top Five

"Hand On My Shoulder" Sandi Patti Word

The long-awaited and highly publicized new release from Sandi Patti finally makes its way to the radio in the form of this smash debut single. Penned by Bob Farrell and Greg Nelson, the same team responsible for the lion's share of the hit singles from Another Time, Another Place, it's certain to be a chart-topper in both the AC and Inspirational arenas. AC/INSP/CHR

"The Door of Heaven" Out of the Grey Sparrow

Scott and Christine Dente's unique brand of acoustic pop/rock has made them a favorite of Christian radio... especially CHR stations. The second release from their sophomore effort promises to earn a position within the ranks of the top five at CHR stations again, with likely heavy rotation airplay at most AC's as well. CHR/AC

"That's Paradise" Steven Curtis Chapman Sparrow

Six... count 'em... six more Doves for the trophy case, and another single for radio to sink its teeth into. Congrats to the fair-haired Kentucky boy! Not bad for a kid who, by his own admission, never really considered singing to be his strong suit. As the weather warms and car windows come down, this tune will warm up those speakers. It's high energy acoustic pop delivered as only Chapman can,

and a sure shot for AC and CHR formats. AC/CHR

On The Chart

"Alice in Wonderland" Susan Ashton Sparrow

While this song doesn't jump out and grab you right away, it's amazingly entrancing, and a quick four minutes. Wayne Kirkpatrick and Billy Sprague team up for a fresh lyrical approach that will keep your listeners thinking. Gently flowing guitar and Susan's velvety smooth voice make it an easy fit and a smart add. AC/INSP

"Christ the Lord is Risen Today" Steve Green Sparrow

Another selection from Hymns: A Portrait of Christ, this song boasts a pleasing and innovative mix of traditional and contemporary stylings. The arrangement makes good use of orchestral instrumentation but adds pop rhythm patterns throughout. Green's vocals are stellar, as always. INSP/AC

"Heal Our Land" Michael Card Sparrow

National Day of Prayer is quickly approaching—May 6 is the big day, in case you didn't know, and Michael Card has fashioned a wonderful song just for the occasion. Based on 2 Chronicles 7:14, it's a much-needed call for all believers to band together and lift up our nation. Give it solid airplay between now and the big day, and keep it in rotation beyond, to serve as a reminder that we need to pray constantly, not just one day a year. AC/INSP

"I Don't Wanna Fall Away from You" Petra Sparrow

No, Petra hasn't signed with Sparrow. This is another selection from the No Compromise project. John Schlitt's vocals are as recognizable as ever, as are the patented layered bgv's and stacks of keyboards compliments of John Lawry. If you're hungry for some new Petra, try this one on for size. It's a glove fit for AC's and CHR's, and may work well at more progressive INSP outlets. AC/CHR/INSP

"Love Me So Right" Tavani Broken

You might recognize one half of this husband-wife team as Peaches from Peaches and Herb... yeah, major flashback, I know. Linda is now sharing her voice talents, along with hubby Steven (Tavani), with Christian music fans. Their debut offering is high energy dance-pop with a hook that will have you singing along in no time. CHR

"These Last Days" Steve & Annie Chapman S&A Family

If you're looking for something with a country flavor and familiar names, this is your ticket. Steve & Annie's vocals and lyrical stylings work well amidst the steel and other country-oriented instrumentation. AC/INSP

"Who Have You Been Talking To" Ron David Moore

Warner Alliance

More of the mass-appeal country-pop sound you've come to expect from Ron David. As usual, his lyrics speak of the change that comes when the love of Christ is shared. Look for strong AC and INSP action, with probable top ten peaks in both formats. AC/INSP

Video

"This is the Life" Phillips, Craig & Dean Star Song

Ready to go shopping with three wild and crazy guys? I'm fairly certain this clip holds the distinction of being the first Christian video ever shot on location in a Christian bookstore. It's just crazy enough to be brilliant! Even though it sounds hokey, it's actually a lot of fun to watch.

Another surprised winner was New Artist of the Year Cindy Morgan who cited Shirley Caesar, Anita Baker, Michael McDonald, Dottie Rambo and her own mother as key influences in her musical direction. But the biggest surprise of the evening came for "astounded" new artists Pray for Rain whose self-titled debut claimed the Dove Award for Rock Album of the Year, a category that has never been won by a debut album.

Group of the Year winners 4HIM were joined by several other artists to close out the live show (telecast nationally on the Family Channel) with a performance of "The Basics of Life."

The Dove Awards were voted on by the 3000-plus members of the GMA which is currently celebrating its 29th year. Next year's Dove Awards are scheduled for April 28 at the Grand Ole Opry House.

The CCM Update Charts

The CCM Update airplay charts are compiled from programming information submitted by selected Christian radio stations (Reporters) in the United States. The "Contemporary Christian Music," "Adult Contemporary," "Inspirational" and "CHR" charts are based on song rotation patterns as reported by programmers. Reporters are weighted 1.00 unless otherwise noted. Bonus points are awarded according to a formula based on their Average Weekly Cume and the number of dayparts they program music. The "Contemporary Christian Music" chart combines all Reporters to the "Adult Contemporary," "Inspirational" and "CHR" charts. The "Rock" and "Metal" charts are based on chart listings and playlists submitted by stations, shows and syndicated programs. WO (Weeks On) shows how long the song has been on that chart; LW (Last Week) or LC (Last Chart) shows the song's previous position. A bullet represents gain in total points over previous period. "Pts" represents the percentage of total possible points a song has received. "Heavy" rotation or #1 position from every Reporter would result in 100 points.) "Chg" is the gain or loss (-) in points from the previous chart. "%On" represents the percentage of Reporters reporting the song. "%A" is the percentage of Reporters adding the song this time. "%H" "%M" "%L" shows the percentage of Reporters who have the song in "Heavy," "Medium" or "Light" rotations. The "Highest Debut" is the song that enters that chart at the highest position. The "Highest Gainer" is the non-debut song that has gained the most points on that chart. All charts copyright © 1993 by CCM Communications. These listings may not be reproduced in any manner without the express written permission of CCM Communications.
