EMI Forms New Christian Music Group

Distribution Unit to House Sparrow, Star Song, Other Labels

EMI MUSIC ANNOUNCED last week that it has formed a Christian Music Group, to be co-chaired by Billy Ray Hearn and Jimmy Bowen, in order to produce and market what it terms "the industry's largest repertoire of Christian music." The Group will begin operations Jan. 1, and will have office headquarters in the same building that currently houses Sparrow at in Brentwood, Tenn.

EMI's Christian Music Group will consist of two EMI labels: Sparrow, headed by Bill Hearn and Star Song, headed by Stan Moser. Each label will retain its own creative autonomy—like Liberty, Capitol and other labels in the EMI family—but will have a common marketing and distribution system, as well as common "back office" support and access to EMI's worldwide resources. As a result, the Sparrow and Star Song names will be used only in reference to their respective record labels under the Christian Music Group. The names Sparrow Corporation, Sparrow Distribution and Star Song Distribution will no longer exist.

As part of the group, EMI will launch a new Christian music distribution unit, unnamed at press time, to market the repertoire of Sparrow and Star Song as well as other Christian labels to Christian book stores and major retail outlets. Former NEST Entertainment President Steve Griffin will apparently head the distribution unit, although EMI officials refuse to confirm that at this time. In addition to EMI's Sparrow and Star Song labels, this unit will also distribute works produced under the labels of ForeFront, Chapel, Warner Alliance, GospoCentric, Proclaim and Troubadour. Mainstream distribution will go through Cema, as has already been the case with Sparrow's product under EMI's umbrella. Releases to be distributed by EMI account for 23 of the top 50 albums on the current CCM Update album sales chart.

EMI Music entered the Christian music field in 1992 with the purchase of The Sparrow Corporation. Founded in 1976 by Billy Ray Hearn, Sparrow's artist roster includes artists such as Steven Curtis Chapman, Carman, BeBe and CeCe Winans, Steve Green, Michael Card,

Sandi Patty Cancels Spring Tour

WORD RECORDING ARTIST Sandi Patty has pulled out of her upcoming tour with co-headliners 4HIM, originally scheduled to begin in February. In an open letter sent to The CCM Update, Patty explained, "Although it seemed like the right step to go back on the road and I began making plans to do so, I have felt God's leading on my heart that this is not the time and I know that I am not ready to go on tour."

Patty's letter was submitted last week as she finished up the final dates on 1994's Young Messiah Tour. "I feel for me that I need to do some more healing before I can take a place of spiritual leadership in ministry," she stated. "... As far as positions of spiritual leadership are concerned, I feel it necessary to withdraw for a period of time."

While Patty also indicated her intention to "take very seriously" her responsibility as mother of her four children, other reasons for canceling the tour involve personal issues as well. "I know that there have been decisions and choices that I have made in my life, especially when it comes to relationships, that have greatly hurt the name of the Lord and the cause of his people," she stated. "As I continue to grow daily in the Lord, the far reaching effects of my wrong and sinful choices also continue to be made evident to me a prepared statement: "The formation of EMI's Christian Music Group underscores our commitment to being a leader in the rapidly growing Christian music segment. It will enable us to fully leverage the combined strengths of Star Song, Sparrow and EMI to promote the best in Christian music to an increasingly broad audience. Our management team—including Billy Ray Hearn, Jimmy Bowen, Stan Moser and Bill Hearn—is the most formidable in the field, and our roster of Christian music superstars is unparalleled. We're going to do our best to bring this great music to many more listeners across America, through a full spectrum of secular as well as Christian outlets."

Co-chairman of the new Christian Music Group, Billy Ray Hearn confirmed that some staff reductions had taken place as a result of the new distribution system. As he told The CCM Update, "I'm not sure of an exact number, but I do know that we have combined the best of both the Sparrow and Star Song sales force."

Hearn says that the new company will allow new opportunities for "bigger and better things," because of its market share size. "We've got a lot of great product going through the Cema system. It's different now that we are a proprietary product, rather than just being a distributed product as [Sparrow] was before."

"We're not counting on Cema to be our major source of sales, though," Hearn continued. "It's still the CBA bookstores who are the major part of our total marketing program. That part has to be solid. It's not changing a bit, except that they may have to become more competitive. It's a new day out there and we're seeing tremendous progress and tremendous potential. We're going to look back on these days as the beginning of a whole new era." ■ and my heart is deeply grieved. I have caused many people a great deal of pain in my life. I can only publicly and privately seek their forgiveness, which I believe I have done."

In 1992, Patty divorced her husband of 13 years, John Helvering. A short time later, she made known publicly that she had been sexually abused at the age of six.

In a letter from Jim Lyon, Patty's pastor at North Anderson Church of God in Anderson, Ind., he stated, "In recent months especially, [God] has drawn [Sandi] ever closer to His own mind and purposes—and she has responded courageously, facing her past and her future by Heaven's light." Lyon went on to say that Patty is "holding herself accountable to her local church family" during her "pursuit of wholeness and holiness."

Charles Dorris, co-head of the William Morris Agency's Christian music department, told The CCM Update that in no way had there had been any problems booking the co-billed tour, which was also scheduled to feature Christian comedian Mark Lowry. "As a matter of fact," Dorris stated, "it was one of our most highly sought-after tours. Nearly every promoter we pitched to bought it immediately, at the original, non-negotiable asking price. In fact, we had multiple offers for virtually every day that was available for the tour. There was a tremendous demand."

According to Dorris and Mike Atkins, manager for 4HIM, a tour package featuring 4HIM and two other artists, unannounced at press time, will still happen in the spring. Dorris stated, "Virtually all the promoters, many of whom are 'mainstream' promoters, have left the door open for us to come back with this new 4HIM touring package into the same city and same date originally scheduled for the tour with Sandi. In many cases we will keep the same building, although some may be scaled back where needed." ■

ALBUM REVIEWS

Top Ten

PFR Great Lengths Vireo

These boys don't play alternative or metal or hard rock—it's pure pop, in the manner of late '60s Beatles, as filtered through contemporary influences such as Crowded House, The Posies and (especially) Jellyfish. It's quite clever lyrically and so catchy and well-constructed musically that you have to believe that "if you play it, they (customers) will come."

Kelli Reisen Someday Myrrh/Pakaderm

Reisen created quite a stir as Pakaderm's first female adult contemporary artist, notching a number of hits from her debut, including the Top 10, "After The Hurricane." Once again guided by John & Dino Elefante, Reisen seems to have harnessed a deeper expressiveness on Someday, whether on peppy tunes like "Love Everlasting" and "Something About His Love" or more reflective songs, such as the title track and "Did The Lilies Cry?"

On the Chart

Acappella Hymns for All the World Word

Truly international in scope, this record features well-known hymns such as "All Hail The Power," "The Old Rugged Cross," "In The Garden" and "Amazing Grace," sung in a variety of languages, including Russian, Portuguese, French and Spanish. Besides doing their usual superb job their native tongue, the group also parleys the non-English dialects quite well. The ministry implications for a project like this are very exciting.

Christafari Soulfire Gotee

Because of reggae music's association with the cultish Rastafarian religion, Christafari is bound to have some obstacles to surmount. However, the band has two large pluses in its favor—its participation in the best-selling Reggae Worship, Vol. 1 album and the fact that its bonafide reggae sound is prevalent on today's pop music charts. But most of all, it's well-written and passionately performed music that's unquestionably Christ-centered.

Ben Tankard Play Me in Your Key Tribute

Producer/programmer/keyboard whiz Tankard combines his jazzy, "quiet storm" leanings with "R&B lite" on this latest offering. It's a Quincy Jones-type affair, with Tankard conducting an impressive guest list of vocalists and musicians, including his spouse Princess, Yolanda Adams, Angelo &

Veronica, Take 6, Eric Darken and Mike-E—a very enjoyable mix of vocal and instrumental talents.

* Vector Temptation Liquid Disc

Although commercial success has eluded Vector, fans and peers are continually drawn to the poetic lyrics and soaring vocals of Steve Griffith and the musical inventions & guitar experimentations of Jimmy A. Their first album in five years, Temptation is anchored in solid pop melodies, while driven by world beat-influenced arrangements. Vocalist Davia Vallesillo of Dakota Motor Co. makes an important contribution to several tracks, as do long-time associates Dave Frank, Phil Madeira and Steve Brewster. From the evocative cover art through the 14 brilliant songs, Vector has never looked or sounded better.

Also Received

Scott Blackwell The Real Thing MYX

Still the standard-setter in dance music, Blackwell hooks up with Zarc Porter from World Wide Message Tribe to massage, manipulate, deconstruct and reconstruct sixty minutes worth of slammin' beats, samples and other techno-driven sounds. It's mostly an instrumental affair, with guest vocals from Sandra Stephens and new N'Soul signees Limit X.

Jeff Johnson & Brian Dunning

Songs from Albion III Ark/R.E.X.

The collaborations between the Oregon keyboard whiz and the Irish woodwind master just keep getting better. This disc, based on the third of author Stephen Lawhead's "Albion" novels, mixes Celtic textures with the rock-oriented performances of featured players Derri Daugherty, bassist Rick Crittenden and drummer Brian Wills. The music will transport you to the mysterious locations of Lawhead's stories.

VIDEOS

Clay Crosse My Place is With You Reunion

From the looks of this brief video bio, the former Federal Express truck driver is still pretty dumbfounded by his success. Crosse tells his own story in brief vignettes, connected by concept clips for two of his hits, the title song and "I Surrender All." Though he's still finding his footing stylistically, this short compilation proves he's got great visual charisma, which certainly bodes well for his future.

Susie Luchsinger Real Love Home Video Collection Integrity Music

This homespun, 25-minute collection demonstrates why Susie is considered every bit as charming and talented as her superstar sister Reba (McEntire). Susie and her mother discuss "The McEntire Singers" roots, and you'll learn how the Lord transformed Susie from the shy sister with stage fright into an engaging live performer. Concept videos for "And So It Goes," "For Pete's Sake" and "I Don't Love You Like I Used To" round out this fine set.

Various Artists Sparrow TV Dinners Sparrow

Directions: Pop this pup into your VCR and enjoy a handful of newer clips, as well as some of the best of the past two years from the Sparrow roster. Recent videos include a visually flattering "Hold On" by Lisa Bevell and the clever "making the video" video for "All We Need" by Out of the Grey. Among others from the vaults, you get "Goldie's Last Day" by PFR (still a tear-jerker) and the beautifully-photographed "Here In My Heart" from Susan Ashton. As an added incentive, there's a slice of $2.00 off coupons for the featured artists.

SINGLE REVIEWS

'Tis the Season...again! In keeping with tradition, here are my picks — both old and new — for play this Christmas season. May this Christmas and the new year to come be your best ever!

New Stuff

Wayne Watson "I Wonder As I Wander" Word

As hard as it is to believe, this is Wayne's first Christmas album... and the wait was well worth it. A nice balance of traditional holiday fare and original selections, this project promises many years of great Christmas play. In the Christmas standard's category, I found the percussive feel, interesting guitar progressions and spacious production style in this song to be particularly refreshing. In addition, there are several noteworthy original tracks including the title cut, "One Christmas Eve," which is quintessential Watson, and the energetic "Child of Bethlehem."

"Merry Christmas Mary" Paul Overstreet Sparrow

Pulled from the Heart of Christmas — 12 Favorites by Today's Country Stars project, this is Paul Overstreet at his best. His inimitable vocal style and comfortable country stylings make it a stand-out cut on the album... no small feat considering his company in the grooves (Billy Dean, John Berry, Charlie Daniels, Emmylou Harris and Restless Heart). If you don't mind embracing artists who normally reside outside the realm of Christian radio and want to capitalize on the growing popularity of country music, there's plenty of great stuff on this album.

"Mary Did You Know?" Kathy Mattea Mercury/Light

Mattea's beautiful voice adds a whole new texture to what is arguably one of the best new Christmas songs to come along in some time. This is a big-time singer and a killer song... a winning combination all the way around. You can't lose with this one.

"What Child Is This?" Mark Townsend ForeFront

This, the opening track from A Fireside Christmas, is a shining example of the satisfying contemporary treatments of ten Christmas classics contained on this album. Rendered on the soprano sax, it's appealing to all, whether a fan of jazz or not.

"Celebrate the Gift" Twila Paris StarSong

Twila's smooth vocal soars effortlessly through this pretty original tune... the title cut from StarSong's new Christmas release. You can't go wrong with Twila, and this song transcends most format boundaries. Don't forget to check out the rest of Twila's label-mates on the entire Celebrate the Gift disc. There's plenty more good stuff where this one came from.

Classics

"All Is Well" Michael W. Smith Reunion

While it's difficult for me to recommend playing any one song from this album outside the context of the whole album, this is one that stands on its own. The breathtaking boy's choir and lush orchestral instrumentation provide a beautiful tapestry into which is woven the simple yet profound lyric "All Is Well"... what more need we say about this special time of year?

"For Unto Us (A Child Is Born)" BeBe & CeCe Winans Sparrow

The super siblings blessed us with their soulful treatment of this Handel classic last year on their First Christmas release, and it quickly earned a spot in my heart. It also wowed crowds on 1993's Young Messiah Tour. You can't have Christmas without a little of that Motown influence, and nobody does it better than these two.

"Tennessee Christmas" Amy Grant Myrrh

Amy's first Christmas album is over ten years old this year, but it still reigns as ccm's quintessential Christmas album. As the opening number and trademark song on that disc, no Christmas rotation is complete without that tender "Tennessee Christmas."

"Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas" Amy Grant Myrrh

Amy's second Christmas album begins with her milky voice crooning on this holiday classic. It's not a "Christian" song, but my Christmas wouldn't be complete without it.

The CCM Update Charts

The CCM Update airplay charts are compiled from programming information submitted by selected Christian radio stations (Reporters) in the United States. The "CCM 25," "Adult Contemporary," "Inspirational" and "CHR" charts are based on song rotation patterns as reported by programmers. Reporters are grouped into tiers according to market size. AC and Insp. contain 3 tiers and CHR contains two. The "CCM 25" chart combines all Reporters to the "Adult Contemporary," "Inspirational" and "CHR" charts. The "rock" charts are based on chart listings and playlists submitted by stations, shows and syndicated programs.

WO (Weeks On) shows how long the song has been on that chart; LW (Last Week) or LC (Last Chart) shows the song's previous position. A bullet represents gain in total points over previous period. "Pts" represents the percentage of total possible points a song has received. "Heavy" rotation or #1 position from every Reporter would result in 100 points.) "Chg" is the gain or loss (-) in points from the previous chart. "%On" represents the percentage of Reporters reporting the song.

"%A" is the percentage of Reporters adding the song this time. "%H" "%M" "%L" shows the percentage of Reporters who have the song in "Heavy," "Medium" or "Light" rotations. The "Highest Debut" is the song that enters that chart at the highest position. The "Highest Gainer" is the non-debut song that has gained the most points on that chart. All charts copyright © 1994 by CCM Communications. These listings may not be reproduced in any manner without the express written permission of CCM Communications.
